Not an appeal - informant identified

Attached is the first page of 62-109060-1400. I provide it because it discloses the name of a PCI. Because it was bracketed for withholding I do not know whether the disclosure of the name is accidental.

I am not up to date on the paramilitary right of the west coast. I believe that Swift, an extremist, died, but I'm not sure

However, as the FBI FOIA unit may not know, his people had the reputation of being well armed and disposed toward violence.
